

Board seats are up for election

BY SHARON K. SAUCIER

A judge has ruled in the "friendly lawsuit" to determine whether or not all Hancock County School Board seats will be up for election in November.

Circuit Judge James Thomas ruled Wednesday that he would stand by the attorney general's opinion and that there should be an election held for all five seats on Nov. 8.

Hancock County Superintendent of Education Myrna Bourgeois was unable to be at the hearing due to surgery and was represented by her attorney Chet Nicholson.

Nicholson tried to have the case thrown out, due to the case being improperly filed, Bourgeois said.

Thomas' ruling coincides with the attorney general's opinion that there should have been an election of all five districts in 1991 when the county was redistricted following the 1990 census.

The attorney general's opinion started a controversy as to exactly who was responsible for calling the election — the superintendent of education or the board of supervisors.

All school board members, until the late 1980's, ran at-large. They then started run-

Man builds barn and is arrested

BY SHARON SAUCIER

A local man has allegedly stolen enough building materials to literally build a barn.

James Candebat, 22, of Firetower Road, has been arrested and charged with eight counts of grand larceny, and according to Investigator Nathan Hoda with the Hancock county Sheriff's Department, a lot of the materials were used to build Candebat's barn.

"The victims will have to be compensated for the materials used in the building of the barn," Hoda said.

Not counting the materials used in the construc-

Officials want more information on $200 million casino complex

BY MARY G. SEILEY

State environmental officials are asking for more information on a $200 million casino complex proposed on the Bay of St. Louis.

Questions from the Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality officials come as Bay St. Louis, Diamondhead and Pass Christian citizens are stepping up their battle against the proposed Gold Strike/Lone Star project.

Local citizens are pressing federal officials to undertake a major study of the cumulative effect of continued development on the Bay -- before allowing the proposed complex to locate at Pine Hills, just inside the Harrison County line off I-10.

The site, off the DeLisle exit, is located diagonally across from Diamondhead, in the northern portion of the Bay. The development includes two casinos, two 400-room hotels, a golf course and other amenities.

It would be centered on a new five-acre basin, connected to the bay by a 1,200-foot-long canal.

One key environmental concern about the project concerns plans for periodic flushing of the basin where the casinos will be afloat.

The project site has been enthusiastically endorsed the state Gaming Commission. And earlier this month, the commission granted a gaming license for the two casinos.

In a memorandum concerning a number of issues surrounding the proposal, Gaming Commission members said the basin will be flushed by two connecting inlets, with the ebb and flow of the Bay's tidal waters, enhancing the "estuarial ecosystem by adding new water bottoms and tidal marsh grass to St. Louis Bay.

"The location proposed offers the least amount of environmental damage, and indeed enhances the Bay of St. Louis' ecosystem," commissioners said in the memo.

But several groups of area citizens as well as some state and federal officials, aren't so sold on the environmental aspects of the project yet.

A number of state and federal permit hurdles lie ahead for the project before construction can begin. And, litigation over the legality of the site still pendes at the State Supreme Court.

Officials at DEQ are reviewing the project, "to determine if there'll be any significant water quality impacts," said Robert Seyfarth, chief of DEQ's water quality management branch. Until those additional questions were raised, it appeared the permit question could be in the hands of the Department of Marine Resources Commission this month.

As it stands, DEQ's commission will be asked to rule on the

Supervisors hear a dog story

BY CHARLEE MARSHALL

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors heard a compelling request during their meeting Thursday from resident Patsy Powell urging them to implement a leash law in the county.

She and others on her street are being victimized by what she deems a vicious Doberman who barks at passing pedestrians, kids on bikes and even swims across the canal to get at her dogs that are abiding peacefully in her back yard.

"The citizens stay shut up while dogs run free," she told the supervisors of her predicament.

Powell went before the board well prepared with maps highlighting the area where she lives and with packets of information that included guidelines set down by other cities as to how they deal with their animal populations.

Another person who lives in the same neighborhood as Powell spoke up about the same doberman. The dog periodically shows up in her yard, too, even though her animals are enclosed in a fenced area.

Volunteers with the Humane Society were also in the audience in support of Powell's attempt to get the county to adopt a leash law. President of the group, Thyla Rogers, told the supervisors that there are "sick dogs roaming" all over.

The society's investigator, Sonny Taylor, who works Charles Necaise, the area animal control officer, said he was aware of cases where mothers have to transport children to and from their school bus stops because there are bad dogs along the routes.

He said that people move off and leave their dogs and many eventually join other abandoned animals and run in packs.

"God bless Bay St. Louis and Waveland," he said, because both cities have ordinances on animal control and have adopted leash laws.

"There is no threat, people can get out and walk the streets," he said.

Although the supervisors were sympathetic, they are left with a dilemma in that it has in the past been impossible to adopt a leash law in the county. With farmers who have dogs that have free reign over hundreds of acres of land and hunters who run their dogs almost year around, it is quite a different story than containing dogs within a subdivision.

"The county courthouse won't hold the people that oppose the leash law," (if it is implemented in the rural areas) advised supervisor Dolph Kellar.

The supervisor's attorney, Gerald Gex, explained to the audience that "it's never been done" and went over the reasons why.

A dog warden was the authority within the county and it was his job to pick up unruly question of permitting the project - in October or November. Seyfarth said the issue is of such importance, and has attracted so much public comment, that the DEQ commission, rather than DEQ staff, will be asked for a decision.

 If DEQ rejects the water quality permit, the project doesn't advance to the Marine Resources Department.
 Earlier this week, Seyfarth and other DEQ officials met with developers concerning a system the casino developers propose to pump water to the canal, discharging to the wetlands mitigation area connected with the development. Seyfarth said the development's proposed aeration system, supported by mechanical devices, also is of key concern.
 As a rule, he said DEQ has opposed "dead-end" canal projects, because of the likelihood that water in the canal will become stagnated. The agency, he said, hasn't dealt with a proposal that contemplated use of mechanical aeration devices.
 "We're having to look real hard at whether we can go along with that type of proposal."
 One potential problem with the plan, he said, is the need for perpetual maintenance of the mechanical systems that are to aerate the waters.
 Seyfarth said developers were asked to supply additional information on computer models that predict what will happen ecologically in the new canal and basin. And DEQ wants developers to see if there are any systems, similar to that proposed at Pine Hills, operating elsewhere in the country.
 As the project progresses, a group of Diamondhead residents are incorporating as a group to fight it. The new group, Preserve Diamondhead's Quality (PDQ, Inc.), has about 150 members, says its spokesman, Paul Seckso.

 "We can't argue legalities anymore," Seckso said of the pending litigation concerning whether the Pine Hills site is an allowable one under state gaming laws. That battle, pending in the Supreme Court, is being waged by the Mississippi Casino Operators Association.
 But Seckso's group is zeroing in on environmental questions to wage a battle. "Our argument and complaint is over the unsuitability of this site... Anybody with common sense can see if you put all these casinos in here, where the hell is the quality of life?"
 His reference to "all these casinos" concerns a number of announced, but not constructed, casino projects ringing the Bay. Only Casino Magic is in operation in the Bay at this point.
 Seckso and others believe if the Pine Hills development is allowed, it will open a floodgate of approvals for other casinos already on the drawing boards.
 The "cumulative impact" of that, says Dorothy McLemore "can be very injurious to the area." McLemore, chairman of the Bay St. Louis Community Association, said the long-range implications of a Bay saturated with casinos, are potentially disastrous environmentally.
 "We feel any large scale development that surrounds the whole Bay of St. Louis can have a very negative effect, certainly on the environment... In general, we have very strong doubts this can be done without a very negative effect on the Bay."

 Nonnie DeBardeleben, chairman of the Concerned Citizens to Protect the Isles and Point, Inc., was asked to meet recently with Seckso's new group to help it organize. Her own group recently spearheaded a successful effort to abort plans for a casino at Henderson Point.
 In the Pine Hills matter, the groups are urging the Corps of Engineers to perform an Environmental Impact Statement on the cumulative impacts of casino development in the Bay. Such a study could take two years, say Corps officials, compared to a months-long process for an Environmental Assessment which will be begun in a few weeks.
 The larger-scale study, would address the "overall picture needed before Pine Hills goes in and makes its impact," said DeBardeleben. "It is a precedent-setting project... If you start digging these channels, that will mean a lot more sites and a lot more stress on the Bay."
 "So, before damage is done irreparably, let's look at what we've got and try to maintain the quality."
 Concerns raised by the citizens' groups so far include the aeration question, and impacts on the Diamondhead area aquifer, sewage disposal and wildlife.
 DeBardeleben said the marine ecosystem of the Bay currently exists "in a delicate balance and is only marginally maintained."
 "Since this ecosystem and its water quality is only marginally acceptable at this time, any additional pollutants from increased runoff, excessive sedimentation caused by increased runoff, questions about waste treatment and other man-induced activities, will accelerate the deterioration of a delicately existing system."

 The government, she said, should study those serious environmental questions, and also consider the impact on the "human environment" as well.
 The Corps hasn't decided whether or not to conduct an EIS on the big picture of the Bay's future.
 Officials with the Environmental Protection Agency, however, have said in the past they'd like such a comprehensive study done before development proceeds in the Bay of St. Louis and in Back Bay.
 Tuesday, EPA officials announced a delay in permitting for Spectrum Casino in d'Iberville. With the Corps poised to issue that casino's permit, EPA forced the issue to the Washington level for review.

STOP SNEAK LEAKS

Natural gas is delivered through a system of underground piping. It is odorless in its natural state. Sometimes a disagreeable smell is added to let you know if any gas is escaping.

If you smell gas, see dirt blowing, bubbles in water or hear hissing you should take action immediately.

Gas leakage may occur from faulty appliances, loose connections, service lines inside or outside your home, or from larger gas lines. Leaks can be dangerous and should be dealt with promptly by experts.

IF YOU EVER SMELL, SEE OR HEAR SIGNS OF GAS, even if you do not use it in your home - take these precautions promptly.

1. If odor is very strong and you are indoors, open all windows and doors to ventilate. Go outside. Call us from a neighbor's house (Koch Gateway Pipeline Company at (1-800-850-0051)).
2. Do not turn any electrical switches on or off.
3. Do not light matches, smoke cigarettes or create any other source of ignition.

However slim the chances of danger, it doesn't pay to take needless risks. At the first sign of gas leak, play it safe.

Call us, 24 hours a day
1-800-850-0051

Before excavating, drilling or blasting, contractor should notify your state's one-call agency at the appropriate number listed below.

Please call 48 hours in advance of any excavation operations. Your local one-call agency will need the following important information.

1. County or parish.
2. Township.
3. Range, section number.
4. Quarter section of proposed work site and any other helpful information such as an address or driving directions.

A trained field person will be dispatched to mark or stake the facilities, at no cost to you.

The items alleged to be stolen included rubber fencing, a gate, a generator, sheets of tin and various other items.

Hoda said that some of these items can be dated back to being stolen in March.

Candebat was arrested on Friday, when he ran his truck into a ditch and a deputy noticed the siding that was in the trailer.

The question of spot zoning was brought up and the supervisors were asked if they could designate the more populated areas within the county to comply with leash laws.

Gex said he will contact the attorney general's office to see whether this can be done legally before any further plans are made to adopt a leash law.

In the mean time, the doberman's owner will be contacted by letter and advised to keep the dog secured and off the street, supervisor Mike Ladner said.

Powell made a final attempt at getting her idea across by telling the supervisors, "See this face, you'll keep seeing it."

In other business, the supervisors commended the volunteer firefighters by awarded County Fire Marshal Richard Pate and all the volunteers with a framed plaque of appreciation.

A loyal member and worker at St. Rose de Lima Church, she continues today to maintain the altar.

Her residence on Easterbrook Street is in need of roof, floor and wall repairs, Lang said.

Some have already committed labor for the repairs from St. Rose's parishioners and Concerned Citizens.

The quantity of lumber (including floor joist), floor tile, and materials needed has been provided by the Gulf Coast Community Action Agency.

"Now all we need is for someone to provided us with the materials needed for the project and we can get Miss Mae's home in a liveable condition," Lang said.

Lang and Father Francis Theriault, SVD, pastor of St. Rose have been spearheading the project.

Lang said, "I know there are those in the community who can help, and we will appreciate any supplies and help offered. We still need the materials, roofers, cash, painters, plumbers, and carpenters."

ning according to the supervisor districts.

Since the redistricting of 1991, the members of the school board now run in entirely different lines than the supervisors.

Bourgeois began researching the discrepancies that she found in March and presented them to the attorney general for his opinion in late August.

"Thomas agreed with me that the superintendent is supposed to make sure that all school board members are in compliance," Bourgeois said.

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors voted on Sept. 1, the day after the ruling by the attorney general, and with only nine days left to qualify for the election, that all five seats would be on the ballot.

Hancock County Board of Supervisors attorney Gerald Gex and Hancock County School Board attorney Steve Benvenuti agreed that the school board and the supervisors would enter into what Gex called a "friendly lawsuit" that would advise the supervisors and the school board on what exactly needed to be done.

"It is a lot easier to call off an election at the last minute than to call one," Gex said at the supervisors' meeting.

Voters will now go to the polls to elect a totally new school board.

Districts 1 and 2 incumbents L.J. "Larry" Peterson and Cheryl Bennett are running unopposed.

District 3 incumbent Carol Bustetter is not running for reelection and Tony Caston is running unopposed for the position.

District 4 incumbent Kay L. Sones has two challengers, Billie Lyons and Anthony Dubuisson.

District 5 incumbent Lennette Necaise also has two challengers, Desti Richard and Danita A. Ladner.

KEITH MITCHELL, his wife, Jan, and their children, Natalie, 10, Kace, 8, Myriam, 4, and Jesse, 3.

More than just a campaign theme, WAVELAND FIRST is a solid plan of action developed by Keith Mitchell based on his experiences and knowledge as Waveland's Director of Community Development & Building Official.

Let's forget about politics for just a moment and take a good hard look at our city. There has been an unprecedented increase in both commercial and residential building activity over the past two years. Our rapid growth is exceeding the capacity of our infrastructure. Our streets and drainage problems continue to plague us. We are far behind other areas in meeting the serious demands of environmental responsibility. We are feeling the effects of gang activity on our children. There is more, but what is important now are the solutions.

WAVELAND FIRST...A Commitment to Our Future.

As your Director of Community Development and city Building Official, I have firsthand knowledge of exactly what the challenges and the opportunities of this city are. I know, as do most of you, that we are at a critical point in Waveland. We can not continue to do business as usual by allowing our city to be run on a part-time basis when the demands are clearly full-time. We need an experienced administrator who has demonstrated the ability, energy and leadership to proactively manage the many changes and challenges we face. I have made the commitment to put WAVELAND FIRST as the first full-time mayor. I have developed a comprehensive plan of action for a successful future that blends our new opportunities with the traditions of our past.

WAVELAND FIRST...I'm ready to get started. A vote for Keith Mitchell for Mayor is your vote to put WAVELAND FIRST!

Alumni reunion will be held for former students of the Back School (Day School), Rip University, on Saturday, Sept. 24 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the home of E.J. Marengo and Brother Aquin, helped organize a reunion of former students at the Back School in 1975 and we had a good turnout.

The only problem, as I read down the list of those who participated then, is that many are no longer around. A gathering will be held at the St. Stanislaus Resource Center and this will follow with a lunch.

Pat Modenbach, SSC director of public relations, said that students in Mrs. Renee Hamm's speech class will interview Back School alumni and record the conversations from 10 to 12.

Former Brothers who taught at Rip University, Brothers Beri, Alan and Leon, will be honored at the luncheon and a Tall Tale Competition will be held.

I will be giving my shot at the Tall Tale Competition. The Back School was operated by the Brothers of the Sacred Heart of St. Stanislaus, opening in 1870. The Back School continued until the 1950's.

I started school in the first grade at Rip University in September, 1940. That was some years ago.

At our reunion in 1975, there were a couple of alumni who attended school prior to 1900.

There will be recognition for the oldest alumni — and I know I am not that person — as there are several still around a bit older than I am. Sorry about that Charlie!

When I attended the school, and that was for eight years, there were seven and eight grades each year with only two Brothers as teachers.

Classes today have 25 or so students in one grade only, we had up to 50 students in four grades in one classroom.

I am hoping many of the former students of the Back School will try to attend the homecoming, as I am sure it will be a fun time.

Remember, the luncheon is free for alumni and $5 for all others.

By the way, if you have some old photos, letters and books, Modenbach will be happy to include them in the Alumni Room.

I recently gave my fourth and sixth grade readers for the Alumni Room.

I hope to see you at the reunion.

MUNICIPALITIES

Q May a municipality require a transient vendor post a maximum $2,000 bond guaranteeing compliance with ordinances?

A Yes. Revision to §21-19-35 increases this bond limit from $1,000. (Senate Bill 3119, Regular Session 1994, effective July 1, 1994)

Q Has there been a change in the "slot amusement machine" tax?

A Yes. Revision to §27-27-5 increases this tax. (Senate Bill 2935, Regular Session 1994, effective January 1, 1995)

Q May a municipality receive by Governor approved priority purchase or transfer, state forfeited tax lands?

A Yes, except for original owner, heirs or assigns priority. Revision to §29-1-51 grants this authority through the Secretary of State. (House Bill 1317, Regular Session 1994, effective July 1, 1994)

Q May a municipality now allow a special assessment to be paid over a period of 20 years instead of 10 years?

A Yes. (House Bill 1279, Regular Session 1994, effective July 1, 1994)

Q Is there a new municipal law authorizing a municipal billing system for rubbish?

A Yes. (House Bill 795, Regular Session 1994, effective July 1, 1994, created §21-19-2 for this purpose)

Apparently there was a big patriotic celebration in Bay St. Louis when this photo was taken. The St. Stanislaus College's band leads the parade on Beach Boulevard. The L.A. DeMontluzin Drug Store is at right and a large number of flags can be seen from the beachfront merchants. The occasion was before the 1947 hurricane did heavy destruction to all of the business establishments. (Photo was property of the late Rosemary Blaize through nephew Tony Monti of Bay St. Louis.) The Echo welcomes photos older than 25 years for publication. They will be returned to the owners.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Alderman says story not all complete

Dear Editor:

I take exception with the news article "Aldermen's Meeting Short and Sweet," which appeared on the front page in Thursday's Sept. 8 edition of your paper. The meeting may have been short, but it was anything but sweet!

Your article did not even report the details of some very important issues I raised at the meeting.

The only explanation to justify those facts being absent was that your news reporter was not present at the meeting. The information supplied to the reporter was by someone who wanted to prevent the public from being informed of the requests for amendments to the City Charter.

1, as alderman offered three amendments to the City Charter.

1. That the City Charter should be changed to allow all city elected officials to only be elected to two consecutive full terms of office.

2. That the City Charter should be changed to allow to make the elected position of mayor of the City of Waveland a full-time position.

3. That the City Charter should be changed to allow the removal from office by recall election of any elected official of the City of Waveland.

All three amendments should be approved by the mayor and council or be put on the ballot to be voted on by the citizens.

The present administration not only would not approve the amendments, but refused to even allow the voters of Waveland to decide if they wanted the amendments put into their City Charter.

Citizens of Waveland can choose to amend their City Charter. Article 21-17-11 of the Mississippi Code of 1972 Annotated allows a petition signed by 20 percent of the qualified voters to call for such an election.

We are in the process of circulating such a petition to give the citizens of Waveland the right to vote on these proposed amendments to the City Charter.

Less than 1,000 names on the petition are needed to have these issues put on the ballot.

Sincerely,
Stan Weidman
Alderman Ward 4
City of Waveland

House votes to apply private sector laws to itself

The U.S. House of Representatives overwhelmingly passed a bipartisan bill that would for the first time in history require Congress to adhere to all private-sector workplace laws.

The Congressional Accountability Act, which I strongly supported, will bring Congress into compliance with fair labor and worker safety laws.

For more than 200 years, attempts to make Congress comply with workplace laws have been dashed by the fact that any change in the law would violate the Constitution's doctrine of separation of powers.

The legislation was written in a manner, however, by which Congress can comply with workplace laws without turning over full enforcement powers to the executive branch.

Many years ago I was surprised to learn that in most cases, Congress was exempt from having to meet the letter of the law as it applied to the private sector.

Congress passed civil rights, disability and other laws, and American industry conformed to the new laws. Congress did not.

It was unthinkable to me that Congress would pass good laws that prohibit discrimination on the basis of disability, race and religion only to turn around and say we don't have to pay any mind to our own laws.

It is kind of like the old saying, "you can dish it out but you can't take it." Finally, after two centuries Congress is doing the right thing.

According to Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) guidelines that spell out safety requirements, Congress would have to meet the regulatory mark in a number of areas including construction sites, food service, first aid and storage areas. There are thousands of safety and health hazards throughout the Capitol complex, including inadequate lighting, unsafe electrical wiring and lack of basic smoke detectors.

The measure directly applies ten laws to Congress.

SSC's Back School, Rip University, Homecoming

Alumni of the Back School at St. Stanislaus and friends of SSC are invited to a day of friendship and memories on Sept. 24 in the Resource Center at SSC from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Lunch will be served to those attending the reunion. Back School alumni are guests (friends, $5).

Students in Mrs. Renee Hamm's speech class will interview Back School alumni and record the conversation from 10 to 12. The computer club will then transfer these oral histories to computer disks so they can be stored in the SSC archives.

During lunch, Brothers who taught at the Back School will be honored, and a Tall Tale Competition will be held.

A commemorative booklet with pictures and stories will be published after the Back School Homecoming.

Ellis C. Cuevas, E.J. Marengo and Brother Aquin organized a reunion of Back School students which was held in February, 1975. Pat Modenbach, alumni director of SSC, hopes this reunion will be as successful.

Lewis wasted little time in lighting up the scoreboard. With 9:33 remaining in the first quarter, Lewis fielded a punt by Greene County and raced down the sideline for a 65-yard touchdown punt return. The PAT by Corey Ray sailed wide left and the Tigers led 6-0.

On the ensuing kickoff Lewis displayed his defensive skills by making an impressive open field tackle on Wildcat running back Bruce Turner.

The first quarter ended as the Tigers were driving the ball deep into Wildcat territory. On the opening play of the second quarter, Bay High quarterback Jonathan Farve, under pressure from the defense, attempted a pass which was Bay High stopped Greene County on four downs, forcing a punt. The Tigers took over possession on their own 24-yard line.

Using a ball control offense orchestrated by quarterback the score remained 20-7.

With seven minutes left in the game, Greene County's Quincey Walley took the ball on a handoff and broke through the Tiger defense into the open field. On the best defensive play of the game, Bay High's defensive back Shabazz came out of nowhere and knocked the ball loose, recovering it on the 40-yard line.

Three plays later Lewis scored the final touchdown on an Emmitt Smith-like run for 30 yards. The two-point conversion was halted and the game ended Bay High 26, Greene County 7.

Bay High head coach Walt Esslinger praised his team for their efforts, telling them: "You should be proud of yourselves; you did what you had to do to win the game."

The win improved the Tigers' record to 2-1, while the Wildcats fell to 0-3. The Tigers host East Central Friday; kickoff is 7:30 p.m.

Tiger running back Reggie Williams races downfield in the battle between the Tigers and the Wildcats. (Echo staff photo by Jimmie Brewer)

Wali Shabazz, the Tigers steadily moved the ball downfield. With 6:58 remaining in the half, on a quarterback option play, Shabazz, as he was being hit, lateraled the ball to running back Reggie Williams. Williams then darted 14 yards into the end zone. Richard Benton blew up the middle for the two-point conversion, increasing the Tiger lead to 14-0.

With 3:54 left in the first half, the Wildcat's Anthony intercepted his second pass of the evening to set up a 14-yard touchdown run by Bruce Turner. Both teams held each other on their next possessions, ending the half.

The Tigers' first possession of the second half again featured Lewis as Shabazz handed off to him and Lewis cut up the middle and rambled 47 yards for the Tigers' third score. The two-point conversion failed and

The drought continued on a muddy and wet field in Kiln. The drought, pertaining to the last ten years of high school football rivalry between the Rocks and Hawks. The Rock-a-chaws have not beaten the Hawks since a season opening win in 1984.

The Rocks fumbled in the endzone to help the Hawks preserve their first win of the season. The final score was 20-13.

The Rocks won the kickoff and elected to take the ball first. SSC maintained a 63-yard drive that took 6:30 off the clock in the first quarter, but could not come up with any points.

Senior Rock quarterback, Nathan Middleton, had gains of 12, 5, and 7 yards. Tailback Brandon Benoit had minimal gains. The Rocks started an aerial attack with Middleton completing passes to Brooks Quinlan and Freddie McPherson for gains of 7 and 14 yards. The Rocks turned the ball over on downs at the Hawk 11 yard line.

The Hawks couldn't seem to get it going on their first possession. The field being as wet as it was made the boys adjust to the ball and conditions.

The Hawks had minimal gains from J.J. Hay and Bradley Perniciaro.

The defensive plays were made by Geil Jacobs, Corey Charles, Jon Renaudin, and Correy Gex of St. Stanislaus.

The Hawks were forced to punt to the Rocks due to a tackle behind the line from Jacobs.

The Rocks wasted no time getting something started on their second possession.

On the second play of the drive, the Rocks ran a triple reverse that gave the ball back to signal caller Middleton who threw to a wide-open Freddie McPherson for a 54-yard touchdown strike. The score came with 13 seconds left in the first quarter. The PAT by Billy Dorgan was good making the score 7-0.

The Hawks got the ball on the ensuing kickoff.

Perniciaro chewed up the defensive unit of the Rocks for gains of 11 and 8 yards. Hawk quarterback, Chad Peterson, hit Bobby Lind for what appeared to be a 56-yard touchdown strike, but the ball was stripped by Benoit and the Rocks recovered.

The Rocks took over at their own 12-yard line. The Rocks went three plays and out.

Lee, tailback, scampered for gains of 8 and 3 yards. Hay rambled for another 6 yards. The Hawks scored on a 12-yard run by Perniciaro with 5:14 to go in the half. The two-point conversion was no good leaving the score 7-6.

The next possession for each team was a disaster.

On the second play of the drive for the Rocks, Middleton was picked off by Chad Bennett. The Hawks tried to get something going in Rock territory before the end of the half. Peterson was picked off on the third play of their drive by Billy Dorgan.

The Rocks turned the ball over on downs and the Hawks ran one play to end the half at 7-6 in their favor.

The Hawks came out pounding in the second half.

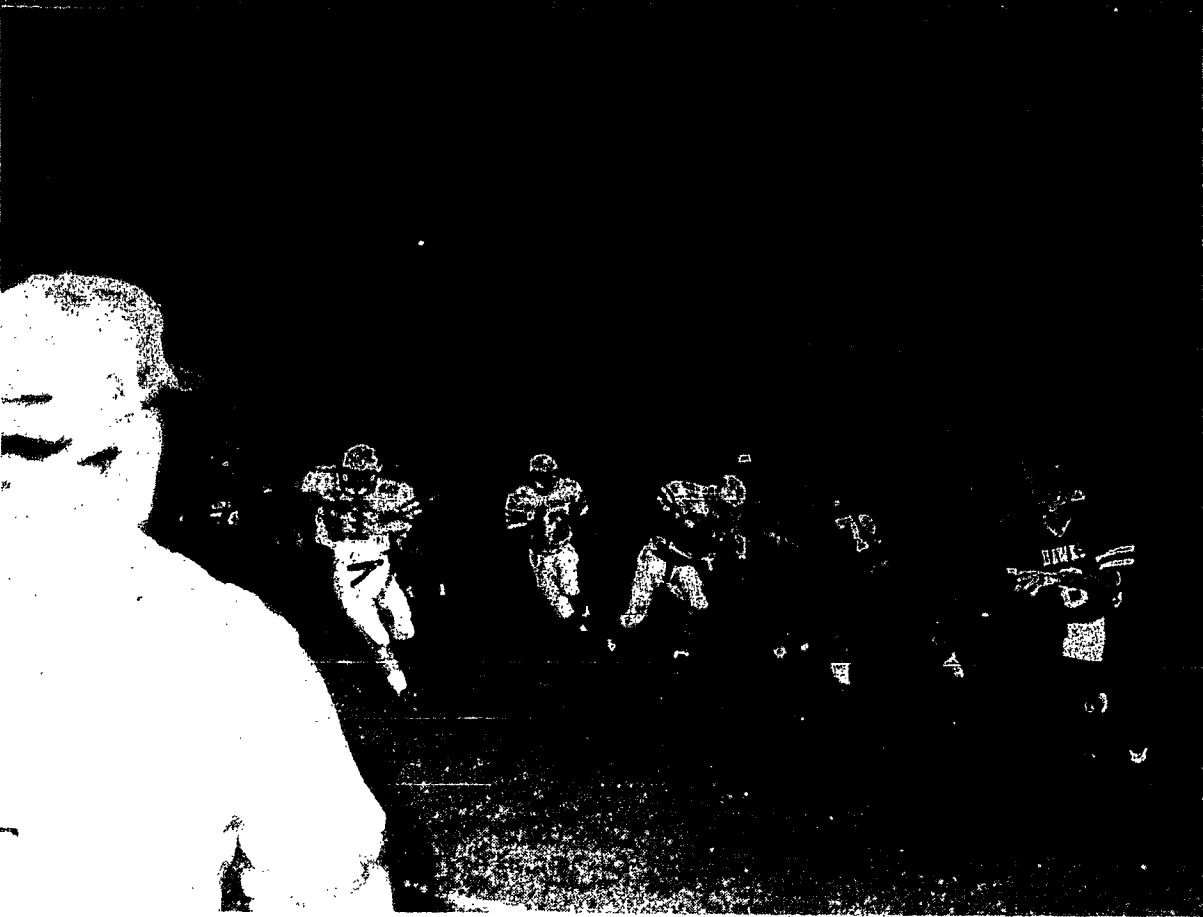

Perniciaro had gains of 17 and 8 yards while Hay ran for 15 and 9 yards. The Hawks tried to go to the air, but the SSC defensive backfield stuck with their coverages.

Gex supplied pressure to Peterson for the Rocks. The Hawks were forced to punt to the Rocks.

Benoit had a gain of 8 yards. Then, on the next play, the Rocks fumbled the ball.

The Hawks came out and ran the ball right at the Rocks.

Gex made two stops for the Rocks.

Perniciaro rambled for 11 and 14 yards. LB David Manasco made the stops for the Rocks. Perniciaro made a 1-yard run to bring the ball to the Rock two yard line.

Two plays later Peterson called his own number and went in on a quarterback sneak. The Hawks scored with 3:35 left in the third quarter. The two point conversion was stuffed by Quinlan and the score was 12-7.

The Rocks took the kickoff at the 20-yard line. Middleton hit Quinlan for a 13 yard gain. Benoit scampered 68 yards on the next play for the touchdown with 2:50 to go in the third quarter. The two point conversion for the Rocks was no good leaving the score at 13-12.

The Hawks put their running game in high gear as they sliced through the Rock defense. Hay rambled for 17 yards. Lee cut around the end for gains of 14 and 7 yards. Hay became the go-to man on the drive as he churned out runs of 13, 14, and 7 yards against the tired defensive team of the Rocks.

Perniciaro scored on a 5-yard run with 9:40 to go in the game. The two-point conversion was good by Peterson making the score 20-13.

The Rocks started an impressive drive with Quinlan scooting for 14 yards. Middleton then hit Quinlan for a gain of 7 yards. Then Middleton dropped back and hit McPherson for a 33-yard gain. The Rocks got a pass interference call and the Hawks were penalized for a personal foul. This brought the Rocks inside the Hawks' 20-yard line. The Rocks fumbled the ball on the next play and Perniciaro recovered.

The Hawks went three plays and out. They were forced to punt to the Rocks who received good field position.

Benoit scampered for a gain of 10 yards. Middleton hit Quinlan for a gain of 6 yards in the air. Benoit made a big catch at the Hawk 1-yard line for a 23 yard gain.

This play decided the game. The Rocks rushing the ball around the end fumbled in the endzone with the Hawks recovering.

The Hawks kneeled the ball and preserved their first victory of the season.

ment. It would be all the more to the credit of the Hawks if they had won the game. We didn't see anything but good running the football and playing defense tonight that happened and it is a positive step in building the program.

Perniciaro had 107 yards rushing with two touchdowns for the game.

The Hawks play host to an undefeated Northshore team from Louisiana Friday at 7:30 p.m. at Hawk stadium.

Coach Brannon Leblanc commented on the loss, "There wasn't any one factor in the loss tonight. We had a lot of offensive plays with less than two minutes to go and one of them was a fumble. Give the credit to Coach Gaudin and the Hawks. They utilized their size on us."

Benoit had 87 yards rushing while Middleton had 146 yards in passing.

The Rocks play host to the Pass Christian Pirates next week for Homecoming. The game is set for 7:30 at Rock Stadium.

In each of their first two games this season, the Pirates drew first blood and scored within the first two minutes of play. Their contest against the Bay High Tigers proved a bit tougher, as the Pirates were unable to put any points on the board until the second quarter.

Against the Bearcats, the Pirates remained scoreless until 4½ minutes into the final quarter, while the 'Cats racked up 21 points in the first half.

Brown said early in the week that several players had sustained knee or hip injuries; in practice late in the week, starting wide receiver Willie James was eliminated from the lineup when a blocking sled fell on his foot and broke his toes. Starting running back Henry Henderson also was out with an injury, according to the Pirates' medical staff.

"When you've got starting players like James, who averaged three TDs a game, and Henderson out, it does have an effect on the way the team plays," Brown said, "but the guys are just going to have to toughen up and keep playing."

The game in Pass Christian was proclaimed by the media as the "Game of the Week." The Herald and WLOX people had deadlines to meet. Only the local reporters were there to witness the Pirates' valiant attempt to rally.

In the third quarter, the Bearcats widened the gap to 34-0, as the Pirates just couldn't stop the Long Beach offense, particularly running back Avery Taylor, who scored three of the visitors' touchdowns.

It started to look as though the Pirates were abandoning ship in the fourth, until the Bearcats fumbled in their own territory. The Pirates recovered and drove to the 25-yard line over the next four plays. Freshman quarterback Raynoid Hatchet ran to the 12 on a keeper, fumbled, but recovered the ball to bring the Pirates to a third-and-inches situation.

Hatchet kept again to get the first down, then handed off to Darrell Biggs, who would not be denied. He dragged a couple of Bearcats across the line with him to score.

On the PAT attempt, Brian Wilson made his way into the end zone, where he waited to take Hatchet's pass. Wilson caught the ball and curled up around it as a Bearcat tackled him. With 7:27 left to play, the score was 34-8.

On the ensuing kick, the Bearcats fumbled and the Pirates recovered at the Bearcat 47. However, three plays later, the 'Cats recovered a Pirate fumble and ran it in from their own 42 for another score. The kick was good, and the score stood at 40-8 with 5:58 left sideline swarmed with not only the usual contingent of Pirates, stats keepers, ball boys, medics and team photographer Tom Pickidge, but also a small press corps including WLOX's A.J. Giardino, Sun-Herald photographer and reporter, and a team from the Long Beach Progress.

By halftime, the press corps had dwindled to the Progress and Echo personnel, since the

Hubbard seeks re-election

R.G. (Bob) Hubbard III, of Waveland, will seek re-election as Waveland Alderman, Ward Two in the November Democratic primary.

Hubbard has continuously served as Ward Two Alderman for the past 12 years. He is an employee of Jubilee Casino and local photographer. Hubbard was raised in Waveland, attended St. Stanislaus and graduated in 1957. He attended Pearl River Junior College, received a bachelor of arts degree in 1960, and graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi, Hattiesburg, 1962 with a bachelor of science degree. Hubbard was a school teacher from 1962-78 in Hancock County.

He is actively involved in numerous community organizations and clubs.

Memberships include Bay St. Louis Rotary Club, Exchange Club of Hancock County, Mississippi Municipal Association, Hancock County Historical Society, Third and Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus, Grand Knight for 12 years; United Way of Hancock County, Chamber of Commerce, Hancock County Alternate School Association and is currently treasurer; Order of the Alhambra Club, and Lector, Commentator and Eucharistic Minister Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

"My experience as Alderman for the past 12 years has given me the knowledge of the many needs and improvements needed in the City of Waveland. The only way these can be accomplished is by working together," Hubbard said.

Hubbard continued, "We have growth in Waveland, but we still have many problems to solve with drainage, streets, trash, etc. This can be accomplished by the mayor and aldermen working together for a unified community."

"I seek the continued vote and support of all the qualified electors of Ward Two. It is often said that you should call on a busy person to get things done efficiently," Hubbard said.

Pirate Players of the Week named

BY TRACI BONNEY

The Pass Christian Players of the Week have been named for the first three weeks of the 1994 football season.

In the season opener against Forest County Agricultural High School, the players chosen were: Henry Henderson, offense; Henry Tops III and Darrell Dedeaux, defense; Henry Labat, special team; Ricky Lewis, head hunter; and Michael Ncaise, hustler.

In Game Two, versus Vancleave, those selected were: Kevin Clark, offense; Brian Wilson, defense; Jason Calowar, special team; Henry Henderson, head hunter; and Leonard Ward, hustler.

In the third game, against Bay High, the players picked were: Leonard Ward, offense; Keith Anderson, defense; Henry Tops III, special team; Brian Wilson, head hunter; and Lester Kellogg, hustler.

The team sponsor is Hancock Bank. Player of the Week is chosen by Magnolia Federal Bank; head hunter by Pass Christian Progressive Civic League; and hustler by Russell Shell Service Center.

Odom candidate for Election Commissioner

Jim Odom

Jim Odom has officially qualified, seeking the office of Hancock County Election Commissioner on the Democratic ticket in the November election.

Odom served as general manager of Bay Broadcasting from 1971-82 and was an employee of the Hancock County Sheriff's Department, 1982-92.

He was the first jail administrator of Hancock County and was primarily responsible for the development of a county farm in this county.

Odom also served as deputy coroner 1984-91.

He is presently employed in the casino industry.

Odom has an extensive background in public relations and security.

Odom said, "My goals are to make the voting process in Hancock County even better than it is and to serve all the residents of District One to the best of my ability."

Odom is a graduate of Picayune Memorial High School and has a degree in broadcasting from Elkins Institute in New Orleans. He is also certified in jail administration from the National Sheriff's Association through Jeff Davis Jr. College.

Odom served in the United States Army 1966-67. He is a Master Mason, a member of the Waveland Civic Association, American Legion Post No. 77, and Hope Chapter of the Eastern Star in Bay St. Louis.

Odom resides on Candy Lane, Waveland, with his wife Mary.

Would you let a bunch of guys from the Mississippi Highway Patrol plan one of the biggest days of your life—your wedding? Deanna Dorr did.

When she accepted Trooper Houston Dorr's proposal of marriage, she never dreamed that his co-workers would take over the plans for the ceremony and reception.

The couple was married May 26 in Jackson in a novel, and quite possibly the first of its kind, "Highway Patrol Wedding" at the Highway Patrol Training Academy. TAC officers and cadets of Class 49 helped orchestrate the entire event.

The affair turned out to be a "Fairy tale wedding, fit for a queen," Deanna said.

The wedding was a culmination of a love story that began like many others, with a mild flirtation. Dorr, a highway patrolman who works in Hancock Co. and statewide with the SWAT team and tactical training, first laid eyes on Deanna Necaise when she was a summer worker at youth court in Bay St. Louis. She was a student at Hancock North Central and several years his junior, so the attraction did not become serious at first, (although he did find excuses to spend more time at youth court than was absolutely necessary).

They started talking and then he started going to her basketball games, Deanna said.

Deanna's parents, Kenneth and Dorothy Necaise of Pass Christian, were cautious about letting her date older men, but relented when friends, Desmond and Freda Hoda, asked Deanna to go with Houston on a double date. They dated, and talked about marriage, but wedding plans did not fit into either of their lives at that time.

When Houston finally popped the question and presented a three-carat diamond engagement ring for her consideration, Deanna said she was on "Cloud Nine."

The couple originally planned their wedding for June. The idea for a Highway Patrol wedding was initially brought up by Lt. Col. Jimmy Stringer, but Deanna got a curious call one day that moved the plans up a bit. TAC Office Trooper Wayne White and Cadet George Miller had been talking about the wedding and it was suggested to

HIGHWAY PATROL Wedding

Houston that he get married at the academy before Cadet Class 49 graduated.

Deanna was contacted by telephone and asked if she could attend a wedding in Jackson on May 26. She asked whose wedding it was to be, and was informed that it was to be her's. She thought it was a joke, but Houston urged her to listen to the basic plans the group in Jackson had put together.

"Guys planning a wedding, there is no way of telling how it will turn out," she thought to herself.

But, she decided to go along with the idea.

"Sure, you all do it and I'll be there, Deanna told them, laughingly.

Many phone calls back and forth led up to the big day. Deanna was assured by Janet Byrd, Martha Fletcher and T.J. Shelbourn, wife of Houston's captain, Lee Shelbourn, that they would have a good deal of input and told her not to worry.

The bride-to-be picked out her gown and "a few other things" and tried not to worry. Any fears Deanna had turned out to be unfounded.

"T.J. planned a wedding for me as if it was her very own," Deanna said.

Deanna and her friend, Joy Ladner Stabinsky, arrived in Jackson the night before the wedding and stayed up until 3:30 a.m. talking. An excited and hyper T.J. awakened them with a call at 7:15, and they were "up for the duration of the day."

The ceremony went like clockwork, except for when the best man, Capt. Lee Shelbourn, dropped the rings and couldn't get the three-ring set back in order. During the vows when Deanna was asked if she would obey her husband, there was a wild outburst of laughter when members of the wedding party noticed that Deanna's eyes flew wide open at the request. She had expected a somewhat different and updated version of the traditional vows.

The bride's brother-in-law, Lonnie Spiers, gave her in marriage. Lt. Pete Collins and a cadet, who was a preacher and is now a trooper, George Brewton, officiated.

The bride took her vows in a traditional white bridal gown, worn slightly off the shoulders, accented with pearls and sequins. Her veil fell from a crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet created by her grandmother, Norma Cuevas, assisted by Kimberly Cuevas.

A longtime friend from college, Michele Trudo, was maid of honor and Deanna's sister, Dottie Necaise, was her bridesmaid. Her nieces, Amanda and Courtney Spiers, served as flower girls.

Standing for the groom were Capt. Lee Shelbourn and Sergeant Tony Thornton. Ushers were members of the Mississippi Highway Patrol, led by Trooper Roger Blackman.

Members of Cadet Class 49 hoisted their rifles to form an archway for the bride as she came down the aisle. Members of the Mississippi Highway Patrol Honor Guard were posted on both sides of the altar, serving as honorary groomsmen. After the ceremony there was a 21-gun salute by the Cadet Class 49 Honor Guard.

The reception was held at the academy with the appropriate colors and insignia of the Mississippi Highway Patrol as decoration.

Kristi L. and Michael H. Sanders were married at 2 p.m. Saturday, August 13, 1994, at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Little Rock, Ark.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kunder. Mrs. Kunder is the former Mary Alice Kingston of Bay St. Louis. Grandparents are Thelma Kingston of Bay St. Louis and the late Chester Kingston and the late Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kunder.

The groom is the son of Richard H. Sanders of Sherwood and Mary Nichols and the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hugh Sanders and the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mizner.

Monsignor John O'Donnell officiated at the ceremony. Nuptial music was provided by soloist Jay Menna and organist David Crockett.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal white silk and taffeta gown with a basque waistline and short puffed sleeves dotted with pearls. The fitted bodice was detailed with European lace appliques and enhanced with seed pearls and sequins. The bouffant skirt was edged with lace and extended to a cathedral train that featured lace cut-outs. The veil was a wreath of silk flowers and pearls secured with a double-tiered veil of illusion.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white silk roses accented with ivy, pearls and lace.

Kim Eden of Sherwood was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Amy Kirspe of Conway, Donna Rocha of Houston, sister of the bride, and Lisa Barkley of Abilene, Texas, sister of the bride.

Attendants wore formal gowns of lilac taffeta and carried bouquets of long-stemmed white silk roses.

Dennis Eberle, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man.

Groomsmen were Mark Chapman of Sherwood, Bobby Hendren of Memphis, Tenn., uncle of the groom, and Paul Kingston of Sheridan, uncle of the bride.

Ushers were John Hensley and John Rocha of Houston, brother-in-law of the bride.

Preslie Long of Macon, Ga., cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Daniel Eberle, nephew of the groom, was the ring bearer.

Mrs. Michael Sanders

A reception was held at Immaculata Hall. The bride is a junior accounting major at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock and a graduate of North Little Rock High School.

The groom is also a North Little Rock High graduate and is employed with Lendermon Paint Company of Little Rock.

After a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tenn., the couple will live in Sherwood.

Bang-Parsons

Patricia Ileen Parsons became the bride of Arthur Adam Bang in a 7 p.m. double-ring, candlelight ceremony on Friday, July 1, 1994 at Bay Side Park Baptist Church.

She is the daughter of Tom and Patricia Parsons of Bay St. Louis and he is the son of Arthur and Bernadette Bang of Vancleave.

The Rev. Brewer officiated at the ceremony. Pianist was Marie Schneller.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose for her wedding a satin gown embellished with seed pearls, sequins and delicate lace. The full-length train was scalloped with lace. Her veil was secured by a wreath of flowers, pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of white and peach roses with a cascade of baby's breath.

Angela Parsons was maid of honor. Catherine Parsons was the bridesmaid.

The attendants' dresses were of peach satin. They were tea-length with a scalloped neckline.

They carried candles adorned with baby's breath and roses.

Stacie Asher and Brooks Meyers were flower girl and ringbearer, respectively.

Nick Bang, brother of the groom, served as best man. The groom's attendants were James Holmes, Louis Bang, brother of the groom, and Chester Berry.

A reception was held at Bayou Phillips Community Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bang

The couple is making their home in Vancleave. A bridal shower was given for the bride-to-be by Karen Asher at the Bayou Phillips Community Center on June 12.

JESUS IS ALIVE! REV 1:18 - Rev 22:17 A Finished Eternal Transaction. His consuming, purifying power, owner. Is your soul, spirit, mind thirsty for something in life that you haven't found? God offers all of us a Free gift. It's spiritual water. The Spring of Living Water. Are you sure that your sins are forgiven? Have you been to the Cross and said, "Lord Jesus, I have sinned. I am sorry for my sin. I am willing to change my way of life, and I come to you by faith. I don't understand it all, but by faith I receive you as my Savior and my Lord and Master?" Only Trust Him

DONATE THOSE UNWANTED BICYCLES or bicycle parts to a needy child. Our Boys and Girls Bicycle Yard 409 Nacaise, BSL. 466-6404. A nonprofit group.

FORMAL APOLOGY TO THE ENTIRE CATHOLIC CHURCH. I apologize for trying to tell the Church what to do! I was hoping to present a good idea! Very sorry. Sincerely in Christ, Bruce Fayard, Rosary Maker and Farmer.

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI COUNTY OF HANCOCK
SUBSTITUTED TRUSTEE'S
NOTICE OF SALE

WHEREAS, on May 11, 1988, Joseph M. Everett, Sr. and Beatrice Garcia Everett executed a deed of trust to Kathryn Younger Matthe, which deed of trust is on file and of record in the office of the Chancery Clerk of Hancock County, at Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, in Deed of Trust Record Book 317, Page 618, thereof; and WHEREAS, the legal holder of said Deed of Trust and the Note secured thereby, substituted Gerald C.
Gex as Trustee therein, as authorized by the terms thereof instrument recorded in the office of the aforesaid Chancery Clerk in Book 333, Page 422, thereof;
and,

WHEREAS, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness secured by said Deed of Trust, and having been requested by the legal holder of the indebtedness secured and described by said Deed of Trust so to do, notice is hereby given that I, Gerald C.
Gex, Substituted Trustee, by virtue of the authority conferred upon me in said Deed of Trust, will offer for sale and will sell at public sale and outcry to the highest and best bidder for cash, during legal hours (being between the hours of 11:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.) at the main front door of the County Courthouse of Hancock County in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, on the 5th day of October, 1994, the following described land and property, being the same land and property described in said Deed of Trust, situated in Hancock County, Mississippi, to-wit:
Beginning at the Northwest corner of the NE 1/4 of the
SW 1/4 of Section 4, Township 9 South, Range 14 West, Hancock County, Mississippi, said point being an existing concrete monument; thence East 965.94 feet;
thence South 323.40 feet; thence West 2315.94 feet;
thence North 1122.30 feet; to a point on the East line of Bay Public Road, as now, right-of-way, 60 feet wide, along said margin 445.40 feet; thence East 1320.0 feet; thence South 1320.0 feet, more or less; to the point of beginning, containing 21.18 acres and being a part of the SW 1/4 of the NW 1/4 and part of the North 1/2 of the SW 1/4 of Section 4, Township 9 South, Range 14 West, Hancock County, Mississippi.

Together with all improvements located thereon.
Title to the above described property is believed to be good, but I will convey only such title as is vested in me as Substituted Trustee.
WITNESS my signature, this 8th day of September,
A.D., 1994.

DIAMONDHEAD

By Margaret Williamson

PERMITS
Permits are required before any construction in Diamondhead, other than interior remodeling, on lots within Diamondhead. This includes clearing and filling, fences and any type of antenna. Planting on POA medians is permitted with prior approval from the POA. Planting shrubs in ditch areas is not allowed.

PLEASE VOTE
No crossing of medians. Please call Joe Salvatore at 255-1900 if you believe additional crossings are needed. The golf course is for golfers only, no fishing, bicycling, jogging or walking. Dragging for balls in lakes is not permitted at any time.

HOW DOES YOUR GARDEN GROW?
The first meeting for Diamondhead Garden Club's year 1994-95 is Wednesday, Sept. 21 at 10 a.m. at the community center. Members are asked to bring their Bromeliads (given out and grown last year), wear name tags, bring two recipes, and bring a plant for the plant exchange, which will be every month except May and Christmas. President Cathy looks forward to another busy and productive year. Folks, take a good look at the community center's beautiful landscaping all around. We congratulate Chris and his maintenance crew for the hard work, but "labor of love," that won the center the commercial Garden of the Month award for September.

SUNDAY EVENING GUEST
The Rev. Linda Lowry, rector of St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Diamondhead, will be guest speaker at the Diamondhead Baptist Church Sunday evening service, Sept. 18 at 6:30. She will share her experience of God's call of her ministry. St. Thomas and Rev. Lowry extend a warm welcome to the community to worship with them on Sundays; according to the Rev. Womack, the same at the Diamondhead Baptist Church.

COCK-A-DOODLE-DOO
Roosters and the Lott family are inviting you to their fabulous "Sunday Brunch" every Sunday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. "This has to be the best kept secret in Mississippi, and such a nice thing to do after church."

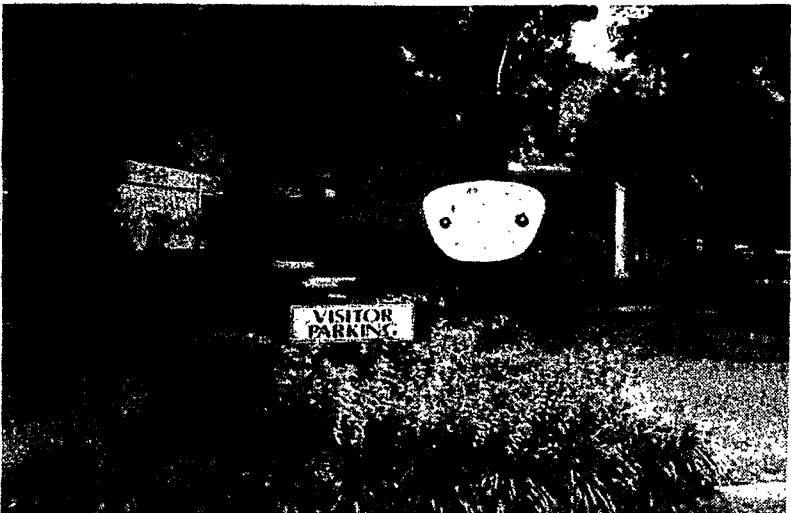

For information, contact the POA office at 255-1900.

IN THE SWIM
Seems that some "water babies" who exercise in the main pool by the country club early every a.m. were filmed doing their "fun noodles" by WLOX TV camera men and made the evening news Sept. 12. Ladies Chris, Lee, Carleen, Carol, Millie, Bobbi, Mary, Bernie and other friends, you looked good!

D'HEAD LIONS
Diamondhead Lions Club will have an open meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 20 at the community center. Speaker will be Patricia Nelson, tissue recovery coordinator for Mississippi Eye and Tissue Bank. Anyone interested in donating any organs, call Howard Peters at 255-3753 or Lola Mullinix at 255-2965.

UPDATE
The Krewe of Diamondhead will hold its annual steak cook-out Sept. 24 from 5 to 7 p.m. The menu will be steak, potatoes, salad, beer and soft drinks. Members pay $9 per person and guests $12. Pre-aid reservations must be made by Wednesday, Sept. 21 to Henry Kibler at 255-7935, 6525 Kousa Drive. The location will be in the mail-out to the membership.

THOUGHTS TO SHARE
Looks are so deceiving, people should be done up like food packages with the ingredients clearly labeled. Be kind to one another, and have a safe and happy week.

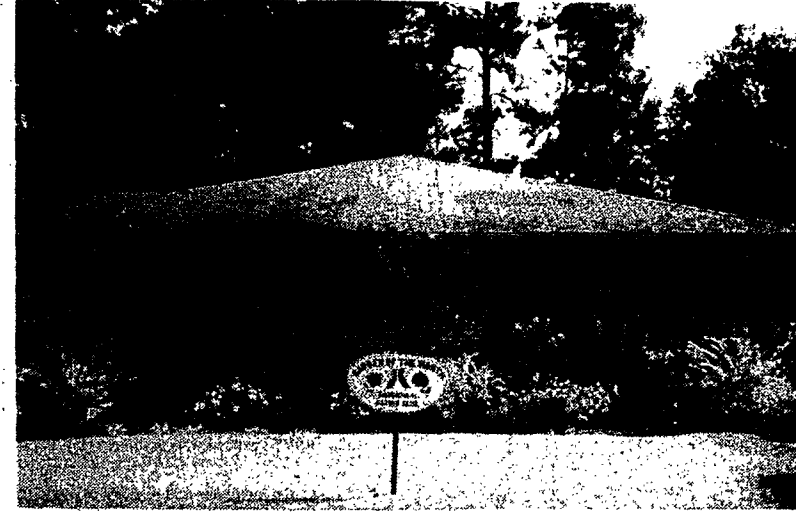

Community Award

Diamondhead POA office was given the Community Award by the Diamondhead Garden Club for September.

Golf Course Award

Charles and Rosemary Bacigalupi at 556 Kaiki Dr. were the recipients of September's Golf Course Award at Diamondhead. Diamondhead Garden Club made the selection.

Garden of the Month

September's Garden of the Month for Diamondhead belongs to Bob and Ann Miller and is located at 786 Maui Place. The selection was made by the Diamondhead Garden Club.

Merle Norman Cosmetic Studio opens in Bay St. Louis

Women of Hancock County can now look forward to a unique beauty experience with the opening of the Merle Norman Cosmetic Studio in Bay St. Louis. The new studio is located at 833-A Highway 90, across from the Green Glens.

Owner, Doris Hearn, has been with Merle Norman Cosmetic Studio for 12 years. She is also the owner of a Merle Norman Studio in New Orleans. Doris states, "I am so happy to be here and I am excited to be able to offer the women of Hancock County the finest cosmetics available."

The Studio offers an exclusive line of quality cosmetics, skin care, bath products and fragrance. Doris encourages her customers to make an appointment in order to receive personalized attention and an individual lesson on make up and skin care that will help you look younger and feel better. Merle Norman Cosmetic Studio's "try before you buy" policy allows you to sample the products and the free consultation will help you create your own custom look.

When you visit Merle Norman Cosmetic Studio you can expect to receive a personalized makeover using the latest makeup artistry techniques. As a special introductory offer during the grand opening celebration, you may register for a cosmetic gift certificate, good towards any purchase of your favorite Merle Norman products.

See just how beautiful you can be with a free makeover using the finest cosmetics, or to get your ears pierced, visit Doris Hearn at the new Merle Norman Cosmetic Studio. Or call 467-0096 for more information.

Is getting organized on your list of things to do?

In a recent survey, 17 percent of people questioned admitted that their homes are disorganized.

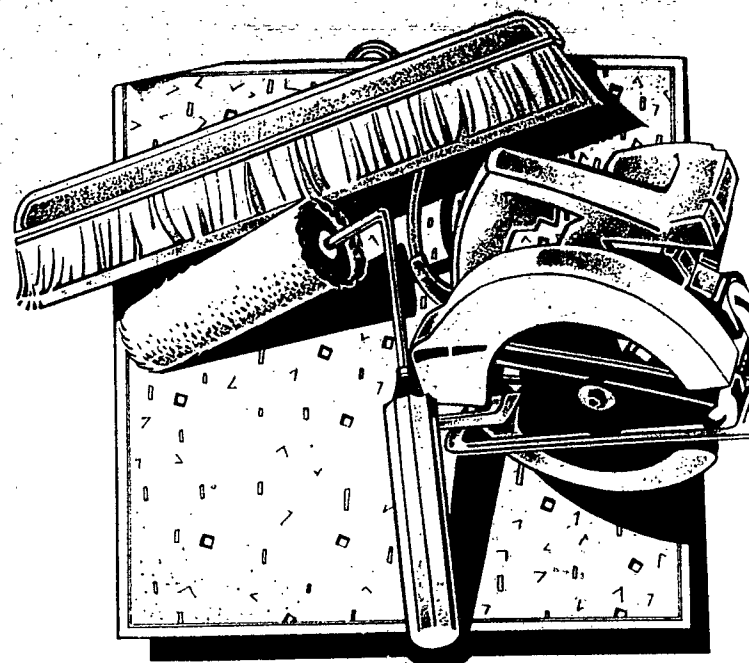

Today's lifestyles have created chaotic situations for most families. Many people are faced with having too much to do and too little time to get it done.

More and more people are finding that getting organized, from updating their personal phone books to storing their pots and pans, can be the key to regaining control over their lives.

The following quiz is designed to help you decide whether your family and home need an organizational overhaul.

Are you really organized?

1. Do you carry your calendar with you at all times?
2. Do you set priorities?
3. Do you make appointments with yourself?
4. Do you put aside time each week to get organized or to maintain your organizational systems?
5. Are you always on time for scheduled appointments?
6. Do you have a mail filing system to avoid misplacing important information?
7. Do you use an answering machine or portable phone?
8. Do you keep a grocery list and follow it?
9. Do the clothes that you keep in your closet fit, and do you wear them regularly?
10. Do all family members share in household chores?
11. Do you store "like" items together?
12. Do you spend less than 30 minutes cleaning up your house at the end of the day?

If you answered 'no' more than five times, your quality of life could improve with some organizational tools and guidance:

- Keep a daily "To Do" list. Cross things off the list as you complete them.
- Set priorities.
- Keep a calendar with you for appointments. Ideally, this is kept in the same place as your "To Do" list!
- Put aside time each week for organizing, maintaining or refining your organizational systems.
- Use high-energy time to deal with your most important projects.
- Work on components of projects together. Complete similar tasks—such as paying the household bills—at one time.

- Store like items together.
- Set aside blocks of time to work. Turn on your answering machine and close the door to avoid interruptions.
- Divide complex projects into manageable segments.
- Reward yourself.

Spring cleaning is a good occasion to set time aside for clearing out desks, files, cabinets, closets, garages, etc., and to begin organizing these aspects of everyday living. Organizing and streamlining your surroundings will allow you greater freedom to take control and create order out of chaos.

Good laundry design saves time and energy

Now more than ever, busy homeowners juggle work, family and leisure in an effort to maintain a balanced and satisfying lifestyle. For them, time saved on everyday tasks means time more happily spent elsewhere.

So when homeowners nationwide recently took time to design efficient home laundry areas, they not only made life easier for themselves but also were recognized for doing so by Maytag Company and Woman's Day Kitchens and Baths in Good Laundry Design Contest.

If you're as busy as the contest entrants, you too may benefit from putting theirs and other ingenious ideas to use. Consider the following:

Keep storage close to laundry equipment. A retired couple built in a two-tiered, turn-around shelf near the washer and dryer. The shelf holds laundry ready to be washed or folded.

Locate laundry equipment near a sink and storage. Cabinets conceal laundry supplies and, when located near a sink, double as storage space for stemware, glasses and bar items.

Place related conveniences near laundry equipment. A cou-

Existing home furnishings can create striking decor

You don't have to spend thousands of dollars to create a beautiful, striking home interior.

"Creating an attractive, inviting room has less to do with what you have than how you use it.

Here are several tips which you can use to create a beautiful home interior:

Start with function. How do you want to use the room? Will you work, eat, read, watch TV? Look at your present furnishings and decide what you'll have to add or eliminate to meet your needs.

Create a scale drawing on graph paper of your floor plan and cut out scale drawings of your furniture to experiment with furniture arrangements. Include doorways (and door swings), windows, fireplaces, stairways, bay windows, etc.

Next, find a focal point. It should provide the dramatic and magnetic element that catches the eye and draws you into a room.

A fireplace, built-in bookcase or beautiful window are obvious focal points.

Otherwise, use a large, bold piece of furniture or painting, or even several small things such as an antique bench and a basket of dried flowers.

Experiment with your furniture templates and floor plan.

* Avoid creating a lineup of furniture around the room. Instead, pull pieces away from the walls into welcome, close-knit groupings.

* Make sure there's a handy resting place for drinks or books near every seating place.

* Combine furnishings of different heights and "hefts" for texture.

* Make the most of lights near chairs and sofas, on desks, beside the bed. Place lights behind large plants to open up dark spaces. Dramatize a piece of artwork by lighting it.

* Break up a big room into two or more groupings for coziness and better function.

While small-scaled furnishings can help you make the most of a small room, try one large piece such as a vintage armoire for a feeling of grandeur.

Rather than emphasize a long, narrow area by lining the walls with furniture, place major furnishings crosswise to break the skinny room into a friendlier area. Span the end wall with something wide, such as an oversized post or a group of bookcases.

Raise a low ceiling with floor-to-ceiling window treatments and tall furniture pieces, lower a ceiling with a colorful area rug and low-level lighting, and hang artwork so that it's at eye level when you're seated.

Use furniture to subdivide a space and create a room within a room. For example, if your front door opens directly into your living room, create an entrance by positioning a bookcase or sofa perpendicular to the front door.

Texture of shingles, brick, stucco can give existing home a new look

If you're one of the thousands of Americans considering a new roof, new windows or new siding this year, here's a valuable tip for getting more than you bargained for: Take some time to really look at your home's exteriors — it's textures, colors and basic design — and select products that provide the protection you need, while offering additional opportunities for waking up your home's exterior beauty.

Think about it: Vinyl windows, while making your home more thermally efficient, also allow you to decorate with light.

New vinyl siding will end forever the chore of painting, while offering exciting opportunities for enhancing your home with color and style.

And, while protecting your home from the elements, the texture and color of a new roof can bring together your home's exterior features.

Whether your plans include one specific improvement or a combination of several, it's important to know a few basic rules about exterior home design.

According to Truman Cowles, a partner in Schmidt-Cowles-DePersia, a Grand Rapids, Mich., architectural design firm, it's necessary to view your home as a whole — striving for colors and textures that complement each other, and that result in a nicely coordinated exterior.

Textural design

"A house is definitely more interesting when it combines several different types of exterior products," says Cowles.

"We'll often recommend, for example, that brick, stucco or stone be combined with vinyl siding in a complementary color. This adds visual interest to the exterior and helps define the home's personality.

"That's not to say that a home must incorporate brick, stone, stucco or other such materials in order to achieve an attractive textural look," says Cowles.

"Some of the major vinyl siding manufacturers now offer trim and accessory items, like corner systems and decorative moldings, that can be combined for a beautifully textured — and totally maintenance-free — exterior."

Choosing the right shingle design for your roof is another important component in an attractive exterior design.

Laminated asphalt shingles, also called designer or architectural shingles, are designed with overlay tabs. This design can add dimensional appeal to a roof, with a look similar to that of wood shakes or slate.

These designer shingles are available in many price ranges, so every budget can be met. If your remodeling project involves only roofing at this point, a designer shingle roof could greatly enhance your home's overall aesthetics.

Countdown for cold weather

Fall is the perfect time to start preparing your home for the cold winter months ahead.

Many homeowners use this time to make sure their homes are as safe, comfortable and energy-efficient as they can be. Seasonal maintenance is important in protecting the life of a dwelling, and there are certain projects that should not be overlooked.

- Seal your home against drafts by caulking and weatherstripping around doors and windows.

- Remove screens and install storm windows and doors.

- Have your furnace professionally inspected and serviced before the start of each heating season.

- Check your home's insulation levels to make sure they meet recently upgraded R-Value recommendations by the Department of Energy.

If your attic or crawl space needs insulation, add a layer of quality insulation.

Replace your furnace filter and make sure you clean or replace it periodically during winter months.

- Wrap your water pipes and ducts in any exposed areas such as unheated crawl spaces.

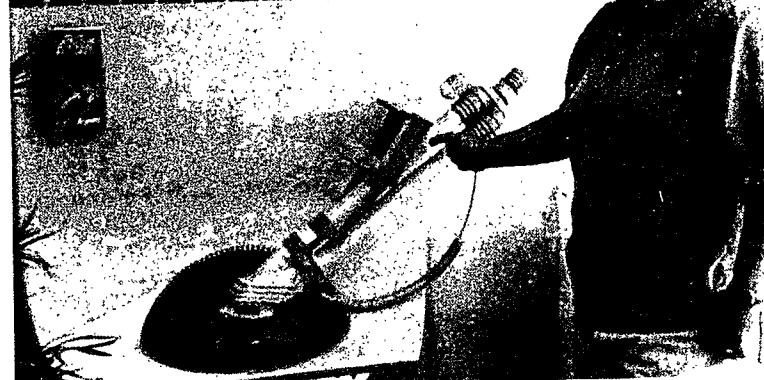

Remember, prevention is the best cure. Nature can wreak havoc on a home, and a cold and drafty house can cost you plenty in fuel bills. Take the time now to avoid any problems this winter.

Borders

Add style on a shoestring budget

Even with a limited budget, a little imagination combined with a sense of style can make a little decorating go a long way.

The use of wallcovering borders is a good example. They are inexpensive, yet they can perform miracles in transforming an ordinary room into a fashionable one.

Available in a range of patterns, designs and colors, and in widths ranging from two to 20 inches, borders are easy to apply to plain walls to give a room a decorative accent. Or, they can be combined with coordinated wallcoverings for added detail and visual interest.

Applied at chair rail height, for example, they can be used to separate one wallcovering pattern from another.

Borders can also be used to accent doors or windows. A border near the ceiling featuring a trompe l'oeil pattern will add architectural interest to a plain room.

If planning a do-it-yourself decorating project to make the budget go further, consider borders that have already been pasted and trimmed. All you need to do is dip them in water and smooth them onto the wall. Be sure the walls are clean and dry and that all picture hooks are removed and any cracks or holes filled and sanded.

Borders are designed for years of sturdy service. Yet accidents do happen on occasion. Should an edge work loose or a small tear appear, apply paste to the wall as well as the back of the loose or torn piece of border. Press it in place, roll it smooth with a seam roller and wipe off any excess paste.

In the case of nicks or small holes, paste a larger piece of border over the damaged spot. Be sure to match the pattern exactly. Let the patch set for an hour. Then, use a razor knife to cut through both layers. Clear the area and repaste the top piece. Wait 15 minutes before rolling the fitted edges smooth.

Smart carpet shopping: Here's how to choose

The economy has left most of us feeling the tug on our wallets and pocketbooks. So, we're shopping more carefully and demanding more accountability for our dollars.

For homeowners looking to redecorate, home furnishings have become as important an investment as a new car. Carpet is no exception.

The following tips are designed to help make you a smarter carpet shopper.

After deciding which rooms you'd like to redecorate, the next step is determining how many square yards of new carpet you will need. Measure the length and width of the room.

Next, multiply the length and the width to find the total number of square feet of carpet needed to cover the floor.

Divide this total by nine for the number of square yards.

How good is it?
Determining the quality of a particular carpet style is really very easy. Simply press down on the carpet pile with one finger and see how easy or difficult it is to penetrate the carpet backing.

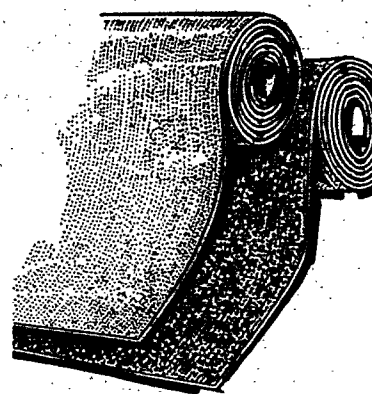

The harder it is to penetrate the backing, the better the carpet's quality.

Denser carpets provide longer wear and better crush resistance. Since soil and stains remain mostly on the surface, these styles are also usually easier to clean and maintain.

Another way to determine value is to check the quality to the yarn. Generally, the tighter the yarn is twisted, the better the wear and performance.

Look closely at the cut ends of the individual carpet fibers. These should be neat and well defined and should not fray or "blossom" at the ends.

Carpet padding (the cushion that lays underneath the carpet) and installation often are included in the overall price.

Quality padding not only will add to the life of your carpet, it also helps insulate cold floors.

Another important consideration is if the carpet features a recognized treatment, such as Scotchgard Stain Release carpet protection, to guard against soil and stains.

When leaves fall, so do mower prices

The days are shorter, and so is the grass — the one good part about summer's passing. Soon, it won't need to be cut anymore.

And next year, many a lawn-mower owner now vows, it will be off to the store to replace old (shabby) faithful with one of those new, super high-tech machines. Maybe even a mulching mower.

A nice thought to look forward to, but a costly delay.

Fall, when grass cutting is about to end, is the ideal time to go out and buy that new lawn-mower.

Why? Mowers don't sell in the cold season at all. Unless a dealer wants to carry an inventory of mowers all winter long, he's got to find a way to move them. So what does he do? In a word: discount.

So the best deals on lawn-

What to look for

Before shopping, however, it's worth thinking about your needs.

Most people can remember trying to start their first lawn mower. Not too many years ago, that meant yanking repeatedly on a starter cord and swearing until that little engine turned over. Ask for a mower guaranteed to start within two pulls.

Don't forget to consider width, which determines how wide a swath of grass is mowed down with every pass.

Widths range from 17 to 22 inches. Homeowners with congested yards (flower beds and other obstacles) may prefer one of the narrower widths for easy maneuvering.

Versatility

Today's mowers perform a variety of tasks. First and foremost, with more and more landfills not accepting yard waste, your mower should mulch grass.

Mulching mowers cut grass finely, forcing clippings back into the yard to act as fertilizer.

However, also look for a mower that changes easily, without tools, to a bagging or side-discharge mower for those days when the grass is too long to mulch.

Riding mowers

Because of the higher cost, dealers especially do not like to hold onto riding mowers. When looking at riding mowers (garden and yard tractors) make sure they can accept many attachments such as a blade, bagging attachment and mulching deck, to name a few.

If you are considering redecorating one or all of the rooms in your house, it's helpful to make some mental notes before making any purchases or hiring contractors.

Remember that every room has a focal point. In the living room, it may be the fireplace. In another, visitors might be drawn to the window. Always identify the strong visual elements in a room and be sure to complement them—with mirrors or matching or contrasting colors, for example—rather than crowd them or detract from their effects.

Often minor, inexpensive decorations can revitalize a room you thought needed a major overhaul. Here are some inexpensive, yet versatile decorating elements to consider:

Lighting

Not all light bulbs need to be soft white, which, contrary to their name are rather harsh.

Yellow or golden light is not as blinding and uses less wattage. Golden light even makes a nice substitute for candlelight since it provides a similar warm glow.

Rooms that are meant for relaxation rather than work should not have overhead or fluorescent lighting. Both tire the eyes. Track lights are a nice addition to any room, especially the living room, where the lights can be pointed in different directions to illuminate artwork, photographs, or a bouquet of fresh flowers.

Borders and trompe l'oeil

Decorative borders that run along the top of the walls can be pasted on in a short time. They come in a variety of motifs such as Ionic columns, floral patterns and trompe l'oeil, and are in inexpensive way to add character to a room.

Fabrics, glass, and mirrors

If all new furniture is out of the question financially, recovering or simply covering tables and armchairs with a fabric that matches carpeting and drapes might to the trick.

Wooden tables become elegant when covered with a fitted piece of glass. Glass shelves are a light, airy, unobtrusive addition. And, why not get more use out of your crystal bowls by filling each with potpourri and leaving them permanently throughout the house?

If one room or your entire apartment is just too small or too dark, mirrored tiles can be a solution. They come in a variety of sizes and colors and can cover as much or as little wall space as desired. Or, to make a room seem double its actual size, place a standing mirror in a corner from floor to ceiling.

A sense of style

It is often said that the most fashionably dressed women with the most developed sense of style are never the wealthiest.

Because they cannot permit themselves to buy every trendy article of clothing that catches their eye, they shop painstakingly for the perfect sweater or shoe that will see them through several seasons.

The same principle applies to home decorating: It's the artistic eye of the resident, not the wallet, that makes for a beautiful home.

An electrifying experience

Pam Button and Faith Fleming price the fixtures that will be among Monti Electric's big sale on lighting fixtures. Selected in-stock lighting fixtures, fans and mirrors will be 40-70 percent off, so now is the time to replace those worn out accessories. (Echo staff photo by Sharon Saucier)

Make older home energy efficient

If you've bought a home that is in need of some renovation, the warm spring months are the perfect time to start a variety of home improvement projects. And one of the most important areas of renovation for any home is its energy efficiency.

Having optimum amounts of insulation installed is one of the first steps toward an energy efficient home. This is particularly true for older homes because most do not meet today's insulation standards recommended by the Department of Energy (DOE).

By upgrading your insulation levels to meet these current standards, you'll help to reduce your annual utility bills, save valuable energy dollars, and make your home more comfortable.

Perhaps the best type of insulation for retrofit—bringing older homes up to new insulation standards—is "blown-in" insulation. It is noncombustible, noncorrosive to pipes and wires, and does not provide sustenance for pests and vermin.

Blown-in insulation has several benefits. The major one is that it offers uniform coverage, especially in hard to reach areas. The material becomes an excellent thermal blanket, leaving no nook or cranny exposed for heat to escape.

Thermal Efficiency

Even if your main goal is to reduce the noise in your home, you should be sure to reap the energy-saving benefits that come with having the correct levels of insulation.

For most homes the Model Energy Code now recommends a minimum insulation level of R-19 in the sidewalls. R means resistance to heat flow. The higher the R-value, the greater the insulating power.

Soundproofing Tips

In addition to insulating, if you are in the process of renovating or remodeling your home, here are some additional "sound" steps you can take.

- Install thick carpeting and padding.
- Caulk around windows and use weatherstripping.
- Use solid wood core doors or mineral core doors.
- Thick glass, insulating glass and storm windows.
- Select quiet, high quality appliances.
- Install telephones, doorbells, intercom and audio built-ins on interior walls only.
- Caulk holes made by wiring that penetrates connecting structures.
- Seal openings around ceiling fixtures air tight.

Pretty wicker

An employee of Coastal wicker sprays a tiny chair. The doll furniture is only part of the wide range of wicker items that the store carries.

Energy savers

- Check for drafts around windows and doors with a lighted candle. If the flame flickers, add more weatherstripping and caulking.
- Insulate your attic up to the Department of Energy's R-value recommendations with easy-to-use products, such as fiberglass insulation.
- Change furnace filters once a month.
- Close off unoccupied rooms.
- Insulate hot water heater, pipes and ducts.
- Close energy-stealing openings, such as fireplace dampers.
- Set thermostat at 65°F in the day, 55° at night.
- Install energy-efficient doors and windows.

Helpful painting tips offered

Many homeowners handle most of their home maintenance.

If you are one of them, and if exterior painting is on your "to do" list, here are some tips that will help you get the best results.

- Be aware that good surface preparation is critical to the success of any painting project, but it is not as psychologically rewarding as applying the paint.

For that reason, you may want to hire a contractor to do your surface preparation, but handle the painting yourself. (Some homeowners do just the opposite, and later regret their decision.)

- If you decide to do your own surface preparation, you can simplify the task by using high-speed power washing equipment to remove dirt, grime and mildew. Contact your local equipment rental center for help and advice on using this equipment safely.

- While you are at the rental center, investigate spray painting equipment. Power sprayers allow you to apply paint to large surface areas very quickly.

- Regardless of how you apply it, be sure to use a top quality paint.

Top quality acrylic latex paint is particularly easy to work with and allows do-it-yourselfers to get professional-looking results. These paints go on easily, "level" nicely to provide a smooth, even appearance and resist messy spattering.

- You'll also save time and effort on tiresome cleanup tasks by using latex paint. Being water-based, these paints clean up easily with plain soap and water.

- As with any home improvement project, you should be sure to follow good safety practices. Wear goggles and rubber gloves when doing surface preparation.

If your project requires the use of a ladder, make sure it is structurally sound and free of paint buildup on the rungs. Place it at the correct angle (the base should be about three feet from the wall for every nine feet of height), and be sure it sits firmly on solid ground.

- For best results, apply your paint on mild days when the temperature is in the 80 to 85-degree range with little or no wind. These conditions permit the paint to form a strong protective film.

- If you paint on a sunny day, you can get better results (and keep cool) by painting in the shade. The north and west sides of a home are shaded in the morning; the south and east sides are shaded in late afternoon.

- Finally, think long-term and buy the highest quality of paint you can afford. Top quality acrylic latex paint costs more than ordinary paint, but it can last seven to 10 years or more, compared to three or four years for ordinary paint.

Laundry

ple with two active children installed a drip-drying closet next to the sink and laundry equipment by using a shower-floor base with a drain and ceramic tile walls. They also installed a low faucet and clothing rod.

Double up on space with stacked laundry equipment. A single mother living in an older home installed a stacked washer/dryer in a compact closet near the garden and central kitchen island. On the inside closet door a fold-down ironing board saves even more precious space.

Locate laundry equipment adjacent to existing plumbing. When the most convenient plumbing hook-up seems awkward, consider locating appliances behind louvered cabinets and folding doors for easy concealment when not in use.

More ways to design and equip an efficient laundry area are available in Maytag Company's Contemporary Laundry Planning. To order a copy of the booklet, send your name and address and $1 per copy to Maytag, Department 38YG-MT, Newton, Iowa 50208.
